

TO THE ELECTORS OF COOK WARD.
GENTLEMEN.—The time will shortly arrive when you will be called upon to select a fit and proper person to represent your Ward in the Municipal Council. I do not consider it a duty incumbent on me before vacating the seat I now hold to assure you that it is not my intention to offer myself.

I cannot allow this opportunity to escape without giving expression to my feelings by thanking you most sincerely for the uniform courtesy and kindness I have always met with at your hands, as well as for the implicit confidence you have reposed in me since the year 1857, when you first did me the honour of electing me one of your representatives.

I should doubtless have offered my services to you again, were it not that I find it almost impossible, while residing so far from your Ward, to devote the regular attention and time which your Ward deserves to the important business before my mind and object; more especially as I am obliged to leave Sydney by the last conveyance which leaves the city at an hour when the Committees of the Council are frequently in deliberation, and am therefore debarred from taking part in their proceedings. While I have always remanded you the most important business of the city, I am transacted for these reasons I believe I should not do justice to your Ward to retain an office, the duties of which I could not honestly discharge.

Under these circumstances the untenable position in which you have placed me during the last few years, my hope is that my successor may be as anxious, but more able, to discharge the important duties of his high office than did me.

I am, Gentlemen, your truly,
JOHN B. SMITHERS.

November 2nd, 1863.

TO JAMES MULLEN, Esq., William-street.—Sir.
We the undersigned electors of Fitzroy Ward, do respectfully solicit you, as an old resident, and a gentleman who has a considerable stake in the Ward, to allow yourself to be placed in nomination for the representative of the above Ward in the Municipal Council, and in the event of your election to use what influence you may have to use every legitimate means to secure your return.

We have the honour to remain, yours, &c.
William Hartree
Charles Arlett
John Hartree
James M. O'Neill
John Hartree
John Hartree
William Head
William Doyle
On behalf of 150 electors.

REPLY.
Gentlemen.—I have much pleasure to accept your numerous and respectfully signed requisition, and pledge myself, if elected, to use my utmost endeavour to promote the interests of Fitzroy Ward, and the city generally.

I will have the honour to be, gentlemen, your obedient servant.
JAMES BUTLER.

PIDDINGTON, 1, DOLM A. N.
Bathurst, 6th August, 1863.
Mr. W. Dolman, FREEMAN'S JOURNAL.

Sir,—I address you as the proprietor and publisher of the FREEMAN'S JOURNAL, in reference to an article which appeared in the issue of the 2nd of August, 1863, entitled "The scandalous conduct of two Dissenting Ministers in Bathurst," copies of which paper were sent from your office to several members of my congregation, and to others in the city. I protest against this article, and the conduct of the author in writing it, and I have the following to say.

In the article great personal abuse is directed at the author, and at the editor of the paper.

After great protestation, the author has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

He has withdrawn the article, and I have the following to say.

&lt;p

[BY ELECTRIC TELEGRAPH.]
LATER EUROPEAN
AND
AMERICAN NEWS.

(FROM OUR MELBOURNE CORRESPONDENT.)
The latest telegram received at Colombo from London, dated September 10th, contained the following items of European intelligence:—

The Emperor of Russia's last note to the Western Powers was warlike.

The St. Leger was won by Lord Clifden. Queen Victoria returned from her visit to Germany on the 10th September. At Rosenau, Coburg, the King of Prussia and the Emperor of Austria, besides a great congregation of German Princes, visited her Majesty.

Earl Russell has stated that the Government were resolved to preserve the strictest neutrality with reference to American affairs.

The Duc de Montebello, the French Ambassador at St. Petersburg, has obtained leave of absence for three months from his post.

The leading organ of the Russian Government contradicts the statement, that Russia is about to engage in any reform of her Constitution relative to German and Polish affairs.

The French papers express regret that the party of resistance at St. Petersburg have carried the day in opposition to the interests of Poland.

M. Drouyn de Lhuys is understood to refuse the decision of the Sultan respecting the Suez Canal, and to demand the fulfilment of the agreement of the late Viceroy.

The British Government are about to investigate the circumstances attending the building of two vessels at Birkenhead, intended for the Confederate States' service.

The Polish insurrection is still maintained with vigour. The Russian Government increases its severities, and has conferred fresh dignities on Mouravieff.

The Emperor of Austria was received with enthusiasm at Vienna, on his return from the German Confederation.

The Protocols of the Frankfort Conference have been presented to the King of Prussia, who has dissolved the House of Representatives.

The Grand Duke Maximilian has determined to accept the Throne of Mexico.

A war with France in reference to Mexico is discussed in the New York papers, and a pamphlet published in Paris on the desirability of the immediate recognition of the Southern States' Confederacy by France is discussed. The French squadron on the North American station is in the meantime to be reinforced.

The good understanding between France, Austria, and England on the Polish question continues.

The Russians have seized a Turkish vessel at Anapa.

The German Congress has closed its sittings at Frankfort. Six States voted against the Austrian scheme of reform.

The Poles continue to win isolated successes, and to maintain their influence in Warsaw.

The Bank of St. Petersburg has suspended specie payment, and exportation of gold from that city is prohibited.

The owners of the American ship Nord, which was destroyed by the Confederate war steamer Alabama, have made a claim on the British Government of 80,000 dollars by way of reparation.

The harvest in England is extraordinary in quality and abundance.

Sir William Fraser, a Conservative, has been returned to Parliament for Ludlow.

Mr. Mason, the Confederate Commissioner, has been the guest of Lord Donoughmore, and other members of the Irish nobility.

Two new steamers, the Golconde and Baroda, have been launched for the Peninsular and Oriental S. N. Company.

The American ship Anglo-Saxon has been bound for the Confederate steamer Florida within thirty miles of Kinsale. The crew were landed by the Florida at Brest.

The flaw in the Mediterranean cable was discovered to be about sixty-four miles from Alexandria.

Cables 982.

Bank of England discounts 4 per cent.

AMERICA.

Fort Sumter is reduced to ruins, and Charles-ton is bombarded with destructive effect. The Confederates still defend the city.

In New York the draft has been completed.

General Rozencranz has not succeeded in his attack on Chattanooga.

The Confederates have enforced the conscription of all men between 16 and 60 years of age, and have called out half a million of negroes, promising them their freedom and a grant of land at the end of the year.

Confederate General Lee was in command of a army 150,000 strong, and was meditating a descent on Washington.

The Federal army was suffering from typhoid fever.

The Federal Government has erected a new fort within forty-five miles of Montreal, having barracks accommodation capable of holding 5000 men, and containing supplies for 100,000 men.

THE BURNING OF THE DEAD.—Dr. Everett will deliver a lecture this evening, at the School of Arts, on the subject, when this ancient practice, in a cemetery way, will be explained and condemned. As the disposal of the dead is now of great considerable interest, we doubt not the lecture will be well attended.

[BY ELECTRIC TELEGRAPH.]
THE NOMINATION FOR ORANGE.

[FROM OUR SPECIAL REPORTER.]

The nomination for Orange took place to-day (Monday), at noon. There were about 200 persons present.

Mr. J. T. Lane moved, and Mr. J. Collis seconded, the nomination of Mr. Martin.

Mr. G. Mackay moved, and Mr. F. Cavenagh seconded the nomination of Mr. Cowper.

Mr. Martin, after alluding to one or two matters that had arisen in the course of his canvass said, that this was the first example that could be found in the whole history of constitutional Government in which a retiring Minister had come forward to oppose the hustings those who had succeeded him. It might be said that Mr. Cowper himself was not upon the hustings, but substantially it was the same thing. He could not regard Mr. Cowper, jun., as his opponent. That gentleman's position was not such as to put him forward on such an occasion as the present, neither was there anything in Mr. Cowper, jun.'s career that would justify him in doing battle with such an opponent. This young man was nothing more than the catapaw that was pushed forward in order to throw an impediment in the way of the present Government. If Mr. Cowper, jun., had been one of the greatest men who had ever appeared in public life, not merely here, but in Britain, he (Mr. Martin) would have regarded it as a piece of the greatest presumption for a gentleman to resign one seat in Parliament in order to contest and get possession of another. Had such a thing been done by Lord Chatham, or by one of the leading statesmen of the present day, such conduct would have been found worthy of only public reprobation. If such would be the feeling in the case of a great man what would it be with regard to that of a Minister for thus coming forward and pitting himself, through his son, against the Premier of the incoming Ministry? The contest was, then, between Mr. Cowper, sen., and himself, and this was the first time that such a thing had ever occurred. When a Minister retired from office, the dignified and constitutional course was to accept the defeat and to meet those who succeeded him on the floor of the Parliamentary chamber. Mr. Cowper, senior, however, had thought fit to select another battle ground and a different champion, and he said this not because he was displeased at the course taken, since it had brought him into acquaintance with the district and the people who lived in it. Some difficulties had arisen in the course of his canvass in reference to free selection, and he would therefore say a few words to them on this subject, and on the course that Mr. Cowper, senior, had taken upon it. When the first Cowper land bill was brought before Parliament he was then Attorney-General, but as there was not one of his colleagues then in a position to move the second reading of the bill he had done so. That bill contained no free selection clause, and in committee Mr. Robertson, then an independent member of the House, brought forward his free selection clause, carried it, and the Cowper Land Bill was withdrawn. Mr. Cowper, senior, said then that he was against free selection before enquiry—that he should vote against it every way—that he should make a stand against it on all occasions—that nothing should ever receive his more determined opposition. But when Mr. Cowper found that public opinion was favourable to free selection, he turned round at once, and, influenced by the £2000 a year he received, he sacrificed his principles, and became a convert to those of Mr. Robertson. He would ask them who was most to be commended, the man who stood by his principles, through good report and through bad report, or the man who threw them over and voted for his opponent.

The Russians have seized a Turkish vessel at Anapa. The German Congress has closed its sittings at Frankfort. Six States voted against the Austrian scheme of reform. The Poles continue to win isolated successes, and to maintain their influence in Warsaw. The Bank of St. Petersburg has suspended specie payment, and exportation of gold from that city is prohibited. The owners of the American ship Nord, which was destroyed by the Confederate war steamer Alabama, have made a claim on the British Government of 80,000 dollars by way of reparation. The harvest in England is extraordinary in quality and abundance. Sir William Fraser, a Conservative, has been returned to Parliament for Ludlow. Mr. Mason, the Confederate Commissioner, has been the guest of Lord Donoughmore, and other members of the Irish nobility. Two new steamers, the Golconde and Baroda, have been launched for the Peninsular and Oriental S. N. Company. The American ship Anglo-Saxon has been bound for the Confederate steamer Florida within thirty miles of Kinsale. The crew were landed by the Florida at Brest. The flaw in the Mediterranean cable was discovered to be about sixty-four miles from Alexandria. Cables 982. Bank of England discounts 4 per cent.

when the late Mr. Robert Campbell had left the Chamber in a huff because Mr. Cowper would not concede a point, he had remained in the House and voted for the manhood suffrage clause, rather than leave Mr. Cowper to sit the only representative of the Ministry, and vote in the House. Whatever his opinion might be, he could tell the electors that the Ministry, of which he was a member, would be a party to no bill that directly or indirectly interfered with these principles. He had been an opponent to vote by ballot, because he thought it a mistake. He was so now, because, though there might be a few instances of injury occurring to individuals through voting according to their conscience, yet the great bulk of the people were too independent in mind and circumstances to require any protection of the kind. Then though those two principles were embodied in laws, and could not be altered except by another law, he had stated his opinion openly, in order to show the exact position in which he stood with regard to these questions, and he would ask if these persons were justified in raising the cries they had done? It had been said that Mr. Lane had promised to vote for him at the last election, on condition that he offered no faint opposition to the Government; and he asserted that Mr. Cowper himself was not upon the hustings, but substantially it was the same thing. He could not regard Mr. Cowper, jun., as his opponent. That gentleman's position was not such as to put him forward on such an occasion as the present, neither was there anything in Mr. Cowper, jun.'s career that would justify him in doing battle with such an opponent. This young man was nothing more than the catapaw that was pushed forward in order to throw an impediment in the way of the present Government. If Mr. Cowper, jun., had been one of the greatest men who had ever appeared in public life, not merely here, but in Britain, he (Mr. Martin) would have regarded it as a piece of the greatest presumption for a gentleman to resign one seat in Parliament in order to contest and get possession of another. Had such a thing been done by Lord Chatham, or by one of the leading statesmen of the present day, such conduct would have been found worthy of only public reprobation. If such would be the feeling in the case of a great man what would it be with regard to that of a Minister for thus coming forward and pitting himself, through his son, against the Premier of the incoming Ministry? The contest was, then, between Mr. Cowper, sen., and himself, and this was the first time that such a thing had ever occurred. When a Minister retired from office, the dignified and constitutional course was to accept the defeat and to meet those who succeeded him on the floor of the Parliamentary chamber. Mr. Cowper, senior, however, had thought fit to select another battle ground and a different champion, and he said this not because he was displeased at the course taken, since it had brought him into acquaintance with the district and the people who lived in it. Some difficulties had arisen in the course of his canvass in reference to free selection, and he would therefore say a few words to them on this subject, and on the course that Mr. Cowper, senior, had taken upon it. When the first Cowper land bill was brought before Parliament he was then Attorney-General, but as there was not one of his colleagues then in a position to move the second reading of the bill he had done so. That bill contained no free selection clause, and in committee Mr. Robertson, then an independent member of the House, brought forward his free selection clause, carried it, and the Cowper Land Bill was withdrawn. Mr. Cowper, senior, said then that he was against free selection before enquiry—that he should vote against it every way—that he should make a stand against it on all occasions—that nothing should ever receive his more determined opposition. But when Mr. Cowper found that public opinion was favourable to free selection, he turned round at once, and, influenced by the £2000 a year he received, he sacrificed his principles, and became a convert to those of Mr. Robertson. He would ask them who was most to be commended, the man who stood by his principles, through good report and through bad report, or the man who threw them over and voted for his opponent.

They were told that he was the only man capable of governing the country! A railway was more required to the west than in any other direction, if they wished to keep their trade in their own hands and prevent it from falling into those of Victoria. As to the public service, the Cowper Government had so filled it with inefficient men that it would take the succeeding Government some time to get rid of them. They could not be dismissed at once, or without inquiry; and although there were many who were an obstruction rather than a benefit to the public service, they could not be removed at once. They would, however, be dismissed by degrees, and their places filled by men who were fit for their duties. What he had seen on the road and in this town showed him the public funds were wasted by having inefficient officers, and how the public suffered loss by contracts being taken by persons unable to carry them out. In whatever else Government might be deficient, they would use their patronage so that the Bench had been packed by the Cowper Administration. He quite admitted the difficulty there was in finding in the interior persons in every way fitted for the magisterial office, but at all events they ought to seek for men with reasonable qualifications, instead of choosing, as they had done in too many cases, duncards—men who could neither read nor write, or whose daily conduct and demeanour were calculated to bring the administration of justice into contempt. He would promise them that when the new Commission was issued, there would be found to be a good clearing out of these persons. Mr. Cowper himself had admitted that at least five hundred names ought to be struck off; and he directed to say that even a larger number of names would be found to have disappeared from the list. Whatever they might say of him, they should never have to accuse him of not having the courage to carry out his principles. These were the only matters in which he had called into account the conduct of the Cowper Government, and he would tell them that the Ministry was defeated on a different subject. In the course of his speech, Mr. Smart had admitted the existence of a deficiency in the revenue at the end of the year of £400,000, and that He would ask those who were thought to disapprove of his conduct whether he was not justified in proposing this inquiry? Could they say that it was such that he ought not to have pursued? If they did, then he would tell them that he would be called to account for it. He would tell them that he would be called to account for it, and the Ministry was defeated on a different subject. In the course of his speech, Mr. Smart had admitted the existence of a deficiency in the revenue at the end of the year of £400,000, and that He would ask those who were thought to disapprove of his conduct whether he was not justified in proposing this inquiry? Could they say that it was such that he ought not to have pursued? If they did, then he would tell them that he would be called to account for it. He would tell them that he would be called to account for it, and the Ministry was defeated on a different subject. In the course of his speech, Mr. Smart had admitted the existence of a deficiency in the revenue at the end of the year of £400,000, and that He would ask those who were thought to disapprove of his conduct whether he was not justified in proposing this inquiry? Could they say that it was such that he ought not to have pursued? If they did, then he would tell them that he would be called to account for it. He would tell them that he would be called to account for it, and the Ministry was defeated on a different subject. In the course of his speech, Mr. Smart had admitted the existence of a deficiency in the revenue at the end of the year of £400,000, and that He would ask those who were thought to disapprove of his conduct whether he was not justified in proposing this inquiry? Could they say that it was such that he ought not to have pursued? If they did, then he would tell them that he would be called to account for it. He would tell them that he would be called to account for it, and the Ministry was defeated on a different subject. In the course of his speech, Mr. Smart had admitted the existence of a deficiency in the revenue at the end of the year of £400,000, and that He would ask those who were thought to disapprove of his conduct whether he was not justified in proposing this inquiry? Could they say that it was such that he ought not to have pursued? If they did, then he would tell them that he would be called to account for it. He would tell them that he would be called to account for it, and the Ministry was defeated on a different subject. In the course of his speech, Mr. Smart had admitted the existence of a deficiency in the revenue at the end of the year of £400,000, and that He would ask those who were thought to disapprove of his conduct whether he was not justified in proposing this inquiry? Could they say that it was such that he ought not to have pursued? If they did, then he would tell them that he would be called to account for it. He would tell them that he would be called to account for it, and the Ministry was defeated on a different subject. In the course of his speech, Mr. Smart had admitted the existence of a deficiency in the revenue at the end of the year of £400,000, and that He would ask those who were thought to disapprove of his conduct whether he was not justified in proposing this inquiry? Could they say that it was such that he ought not to have pursued? If they did, then he would tell them that he would be called to account for it. He would tell them that he would be called to account for it, and the Ministry was defeated on a different subject. In the course of his speech, Mr. Smart had admitted the existence of a deficiency in the revenue at the end of the year of £400,000, and that He would ask those who were thought to disapprove of his conduct whether he was not justified in proposing this inquiry? Could they say that it was such that he ought not to have pursued? If they did, then he would tell them that he would be called to account for it. He would tell them that he would be called to account for it, and the Ministry was defeated on a different subject. In the course of his speech, Mr. Smart had admitted the existence of a deficiency in the revenue at the end of the year of £400,000, and that He would ask those who were thought to disapprove of his conduct whether he was not justified in proposing this inquiry? Could they say that it was such that he ought not to have pursued? If they did, then he would tell them that he would be called to account for it. He would tell them that he would be called to account for it, and the Ministry was defeated on a different subject. In the course of his speech, Mr. Smart had admitted the existence of a deficiency in the revenue at the end of the year of £400,000, and that He would ask those who were thought to disapprove of his conduct whether he was not justified in proposing this inquiry? Could they say that it was such that he ought not to have pursued? If they did, then he would tell them that he would be called to account for it. He would tell them that he would be called to account for it, and the Ministry was defeated on a different subject. In the course of his speech, Mr. Smart had admitted the existence of a deficiency in the revenue at the end of the year of £400,000, and that He would ask those who were thought to disapprove of his conduct whether he was not justified in proposing this inquiry? Could they say that it was such that he ought not to have pursued? If they did, then he would tell them that he would be called to account for it. He would tell them that he would be called to account for it, and the Ministry was defeated on a different subject. In the course of his speech, Mr. Smart had admitted the existence of a deficiency in the revenue at the end of the year of £400,000, and that He would ask those who were thought to disapprove of his conduct whether he was not justified in proposing this inquiry? Could they say that it was such that he ought not to have pursued? If they did, then he would tell them that he would be called to account for it. He would tell them that he would be called to account for it, and the Ministry was defeated on a different subject. In the course of his speech, Mr. Smart had admitted the existence of a deficiency in the revenue at the end of the year of £400,000, and that He would ask those who were thought to disapprove of his conduct whether he was not justified in proposing this inquiry? Could they say that it was such that he ought not to have pursued? If they did, then he would tell them that he would be called to account for it. He would tell them that he would be called to account for it, and the Ministry was defeated on a different subject. In the course of his speech, Mr. Smart had admitted the existence of a deficiency in the revenue at the end of the year of £400,000, and that He would ask those who were thought to disapprove of his conduct whether he was not justified in proposing this inquiry? Could they say that it was such that he ought not to have pursued? If they did, then he would tell them that he would be called to account for it. He would tell them that he would be called to account for it, and the Ministry was defeated on a different subject. In the course of his speech, Mr. Smart had admitted the existence of a deficiency in the revenue at the end of the year of £400,000, and that He would ask those who were thought to disapprove of his conduct whether he was not justified in proposing this inquiry? Could they say that it was such that he ought not to have pursued? If they did, then he would tell them that he would be called to account for it. He would tell them that he would be called to account for it, and the Ministry was defeated on a different subject. In the course of his speech, Mr. Smart had admitted the existence of a deficiency in the revenue at the end of the year of £400,000, and that He would ask those who were thought to disapprove of his conduct whether he was not justified in proposing this inquiry? Could they say that it was such that he ought not to have pursued? If they did, then he would tell them that he would be called to account for it. He would tell them that he would be called to account for it, and the Ministry was defeated on a different subject. In the course of his speech, Mr. Smart had admitted the existence of a deficiency in the revenue at the end of the year of £400,000, and that He would ask those who were thought to disapprove of his conduct whether he was not justified in proposing this inquiry? Could they say that it was such that he ought not to have pursued? If they did, then he would tell them that he would be called to account for it. He would tell them that he would be called to account for it, and the Ministry was defeated on a different subject. In the course of his speech, Mr. Smart had admitted the existence of a deficiency in the revenue at the end of the year of £400,000, and that He would ask those who were thought to disapprove of his conduct whether he was not justified in proposing this inquiry? Could they say that it was such that he ought not to have pursued? If they did, then he would tell them that he would be called to account for it. He would tell them that he would be called to account for it, and the Ministry was defeated on a different subject. In the course of his speech, Mr. Smart had admitted the existence of a deficiency in the revenue at the end of the year of £400,000, and that He would ask those who were thought to disapprove of his conduct whether he was not justified in proposing this inquiry? Could they say that it was such that he ought not to have pursued? If they did, then he would tell them that he would be called to account for it. He would tell them that he would be called to account for it, and the Ministry was defeated on a different subject. In the course of his speech, Mr. Smart had admitted the existence of a deficiency in the revenue at the end of the year of £400,000, and that He would ask those who were thought to disapprove of his conduct whether he was not justified in proposing this inquiry? Could they say that it was such that he ought not to have pursued? If they did, then he would tell them that he would be called to account for it. He would tell them that he would be called to account for it, and the Ministry was defeated on a different subject. In the course of his speech, Mr. Smart had admitted the existence of a deficiency in the revenue at the end of the year of £400,000, and that He would ask those who were thought to disapprove of his conduct whether he was not justified in proposing this inquiry? Could they say that it was such that he ought not to have pursued? If they did, then he would tell them that he would be called to account for it. He would tell them that he would be called to account for it, and the Ministry was defeated on a different subject. In the course of his speech, Mr. Smart had admitted the existence of a deficiency in the revenue at the end of the year of £400,000, and that He would ask those who were thought to disapprove of his conduct whether he was not justified in proposing this inquiry? Could they say that it was such that he ought not to have pursued? If they did, then he would tell them that he would be called to account for it. He would tell them that he would be called to account for it, and the Ministry was defeated on a different subject. In the course of his speech, Mr. Smart had admitted the existence of a deficiency in the revenue at the end of the year of £400,000, and that He would ask those who were thought to disapprove of his conduct whether he was not justified in proposing this inquiry? Could they say that it was such

Department of Public Works.

Sydney, 26th Oct., 1868.

TENDERS for PUBLIC WORKS and SUPPLIES.—Tenders are invited for the following Public Works and Supplies. For full particulars see Government Gazette, which is kept at every Police Office in the colony. No tender will be taken into consideration, unless the terms of the notice be strictly complied with.

Nature of Works and Supplies.

Date to which tenders are to be received at this Office.

Great Southern Railway—Extension from Picton to Goulburn. Completion of Contract No. 3.	12 o'clock noon, on Tuesday, 3rd November.
Great Southern Railway—Extension Singleton towards Armidale. Completion of Contract No. 1.	12 o'clock noon, on Tuesday, 10th November.
Tank, &c., Goul, Armidale.
Great Southern Railway—Extension from Picton to Goulburn. Contract No. 6.	12 o'clock noon, on Tuesday, 17th Nov.
Wester and Richmond Railway—Pemberton Way—Blacktown to South Creek and South Creek to Richmond Carriage of Wool.	12 o'clock noon, on Tuesday, 24th Nov.
Completion of Telegraph and Post Office, Murrurundi.	12 o'clock noon, on Tuesday, 24th Nov.
Court-house and Lockup, Wentworth.	12 o'clock noon, on Tuesday, 24th Nov.

ARTHUR T. HOLROYD.

Department of Public Works, Sydney, 27th October, 1868.

CARTAGE OF WOOL.—Tenders are to be received at this office, until TUESDAY, the 10th November next, from persons willing to contract for carting Wool, at per bale, from the Redfern Railway Station to any part of the city of Sydney.

Tenders to be endorsed.—Tender for Cartage of Wool.

Attached to every tender there must be a memorandum signed by the party tendering and two responsible persons attesting that they are answerable for the due performance of the contract, and that the tenderer will personally execute and deliver at the Office of the Crown Solicitor, Sydney, within seven days from the usual period of acceptance a Bond to the value of £100, and that the tender will not be taken into consideration, otherwise.

The lowest or any tender not necessarily accepted.

ARTHUR T. HOLROYD.

Colonial Secretary's Office, Sydney, 26th October, 1868.

REWARD, for the apprehension of JOHN GILBERT, JOHN O'MALLEY and JOHN VANE.

Whereas the aforesaid persons, with the connivance of numerous and serious offenders, and have hitherto eluded the efforts to apprehend them. It is hereby resolved that the Government will pay a reward of One Thousand Pounds for such information as will lead to the apprehension of these offenders.

The Government will also pay a reward of One Hundred Pounds for such information as will lead to the conviction of any person or persons for harbouring, assisting, or maintaining any of the above-named offenders.

All such persons are cautioned by any person charged with the commission of an offence, that entitles his case to favourable consideration by the Crown, that will in all cases be regarded by the police authorities as strictly confidential, and in the event of payment of any of the rewards above offered, the name of the recipient will not be disclosed.

The above rewards are offered in lieu of all other previously payable by Government for the apprehension or conviction of the offenders above named.

WILLIAM FORSTER.

TO CHELSEA PENSIONERS. Greenwich Penitentiary, East India Company Contingent, Computed and Miscellaneous Pensions. In accordance with instructions from the Secretary of State, War, the arrears of Pensions will in future be paid beyond six months at a time, without further instructions from the Secretary of State.

Pensioners are therefore warned that this Regulation will be strictly adhered to in future, and that the names of such as do not apply for their pensions for a period of twelve months, will be struck off the list.

Pensioners having received their papers each quarter, must return them to the Commissioner's office at Sydney for payment, as soon as they are duly signed and witnessed. All Pensioners are to sign the signature page, and when the Commissioner makes his mark, two witnesses must be obtained.

Persons should be careful to state distinctly their address, and when they change their locality, their next place of residence should be notified to the Commissioner at once.

Persons paying Pensions on their quarterly papers, are requested to observe this notice.

Military Accountant's Office, Commissariat, Sydney.

EDWIN LITCHFIELD, D. A. Com. Gen.

AUSTRALASIAN FIRE, LIFE, and MARINE INSURANCE COMPANY. Head Office: Hall of Commerce, Melbourne.

Proceeding on account of sum of £60,000.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

First-class risks are taken at rates of premium varying from £5. to £6. 6d.

MARINE DEPARTMENT.

Polices are taken at lowest current rates, and losses made payable in Sydney, Melbourne, or London, at option of assured.

This Company is favourably known in the colonies for its extreme promptitude in the settlement of all claims, and is well prepared to insure every description of Fire or Marine risk.

MONTEFIORE and MONTEFIORE.

Exchange Corner.

AUSTRALIAN MUTUAL PROVIDENT SOCIETY.

ANNUITY BRANCH.

Age 43 years.—Annual Premium for a deferred annuity of £104, commencing at age 55, £17 1s. 4d.

BONUS ADDITION, £40 15s. 6d., making the annuity actually payable £214 15s. 6d.

N.B.—Under the Society's Act of Incorporation, any sum in excess of £104 per annum, and the £104 ADDITIONS, will be paid to the annuitant, and will be subject to levy by the process of any Court whatever.

PRESENT OR REVERSIABLE annuities are granted on equally favourable terms.

PROPRIETORS, and every information, may be obtained from any of the Agents and Medical Referees, and at the Principal Office.

By order of the Board.

ROBERT THOMSON, actuary and secretary.

Principal Office, Hunter-street, Sydney.

August 1st, 1862.

(No. 4)

MELBOURNE AND NEWCASTLE MINING COMPANY.

Capital, £100,000.

In 1000 shares of £10 each.

(To be incorporated.)

DIRECTOR.

Charles N. THOMAS, Esq., Chairman.

J. D. Little, Esq.

J. M. Sparks, Esq.

Robert G. Stevenson.

This Company continues to supply the best steam coal in cargoes of any size, without delay, vessels not being required to wait for tonnage.

Quality unsurpassed in Australia.

Quantity guaranteed, and one per cent. allowed for waste.

The greatest care is observed in supplying round coal, which is both handpicked and screened.

Vessels loading at Hobartown trown up and down free of charge.

The Company's steam-tugs Bungaree and Tamar in constant attendance on vessels entering or leaving port, at moderate rates. For further particulars apply to

A. CANNING, Manager.

5, Exchange, Sydney.

QUANTITIES SHIPPED FROM MINIUM COLLIERY.—1862.

July. 11,000 tons.

August. 55,000 tons.

NORTHERN FIRE and LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

SYDNEY BRANCH, 36 MARGARET-STREET.

Northern Fire and Life Insurance in Australia.

Glasgow, principally agent for Sydney, and at Hobart.

ROBERT HENDERSON, Acting Headmaster Secretary.

THE LIVERPOOL and LONDON FIRE and LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.—This company continues to grant POLICIES of Insurance against fire on woodchips, and on wool, hemp, flax, or cotton, for the current rates of premium.

A. STANGER LATHERES, resident secretary.

Wynyard-square, Sydney.

BATAVIA and NETHERLANDS INDIA FIRE and MARINE INSURANCE COMPANIES.

Head Office: Batavia.

Agencies in India, China, Manila, Singapore, Melbourne, Sydney, and Newcastle.

Marine risks taken at the lowest current rates on behalf of the above Companies, by FROST, KOHLER, and CO., agents.

Marine Surveyor in Sydney, Captain W. F. Noye.

THE UNDERSIGNED beg to inform the mercantile community and masters of vessels, that they are appointed Agents at this port for the Dutch and Hamburg underwriters, and request that, in case of damage of vessels or goods insured, or for any other insurance application may be made to them, whereby the settlement of eventual claims will be materially facilitated.

FROST, KOHLER, and CO.

PACIFIC FIRE and MARINE INSURANCE COMPANY.

Capital, £500,000.

Head Office, Pitt-street, opposite the Oriental Bank.

DIRECTORS: J. M. Montefiore, Esq., Chairman.

James Byrnes, Esq.

J. M. Leigh, Esq.

FIRE SURVEYOR: J. F. Hilly, Esq.

MARINE SURVEYOR: Captain W. F. Peck.

This Company effect transactions in the various branches of FIRE and MARINE insurance.

The directors meet daily for the dispatch of business.

Claims upon the Company are equitably adjusted and promptly settled.

Marine risks are made payable in Sydney or London, at the option of the assured.

Forms of application, and every information, may be obtained at the Company's office, as above.

C. M. SMITH, Manager.

N.B.—It is noticed that the charge hitherto made for burning incense in business premises has been abandoned.

N. W. ZEALAND INSURANCE COMPANY.

Capital, £250,000.

With unlimited liability of shareholders.

Risks taken to all parts of the world.

Marine Surveyor—Captain H. F. Peck.

ROBERT GILFILLAN, agent.

THE LARGEST SALE OF STOCK EVER OFFERED IN NEW SOUTH WALES.

OPENING SALE, at GROSVENOR HOTEL.

The LARGEST, RICHEST, and最有價值的 Stock of SILK MERCERY, DRAPERY, CARPETS, WOOLLEN, SHAWLS, FURNISHINGS, UNDER-CLOTHING, STAINES, HATS, READY-MADE CLOTHING, FABRICS, MUSLINS, MANTLES, GLOVES, TRIMMINGS, SEWED MUSLINS, ever brought before the public of NEW SOUTH WALES.

H. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHILOE RODNEY.

Fever, Dysentery, Diarrhoea, Consumption, Coughs, Asthma, Bronchitis, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, &amp;c.

The safest and best remedy is that manufactured by Dr. J. Collis Browne, M.R.C.S. (F.R.C.S. Eng. Staff), and the secret of its recipe confined only to J. T. DAVENPORT, pharmacist, chemist, 31, Great Broad-street, Bloomsbury-square, who is the sole manufacturer of a million pounds of this medicine yearly.

Medical testimony furnished by the highest authorities in a million pounds of this medicine, and the numerous gratifying statements from the public generally establish this medicine as invaluable. It relieves pain, soothes the system, induces refreshing sleep, washes, washes, &amp;c., or lessening any unpleasant effects like fever, &amp;c.

None genuine without the words "Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chiloe's" on the wrapper.

WILLIAM CHAMPAINE, proprietor.

S. BENNETT and CO. have a few half-chests of their latest importation of fine tea ex Oithona, pronounced to be the best crop of the season.

S. BENNETT and CO. have a few half-chests of their latest importation of fine tea ex Oithona, pronounced to be the best crop of the season.

S. BENNETT and CO. have a few half-chests of their latest importation of fine tea ex Oithona, pronounced to be the best crop of the season.

S. BENNETT and CO. have a few half-chests of their latest importation of fine tea ex Oithona, pronounced to be the best crop of the season.

S. BENNETT and CO. have a few half-chests of their latest importation of fine tea ex Oithona, pronounced to be the best crop of the season.

S. BENNETT and CO. have a few half-chests of their latest importation of fine tea ex Oithona, pronounced to be the best crop of the season.

S. BENNETT and CO. have a few half-chests of their latest importation of fine tea ex Oithona, pronounced to be the best crop of the season.

S. BENNETT and CO. have a few half-chests of their latest importation of fine tea ex Oithona, pronounced to be the best crop of the season.

S. BENNETT and CO. have a few half-chests of their latest importation of fine tea ex Oithona, pronounced to be the best crop of the season.

S. BENNETT and CO. have a few half-chests of their latest importation of fine tea ex Oithona, pronounced to be the best crop of the season.

S. BENNETT and CO. have a few half-chests of their latest importation of fine tea ex Oithona, pronounced to be the best crop of the season.

S. BENNETT and CO. have a few half-chests of their latest importation of fine tea ex Oithona, pronounced to be the best crop of the season.

S. BENNETT and CO. have a few half-chests of their latest importation of fine tea ex Oithona, pronounced to be the best crop of the season.

S. BENNETT and CO. have a few half-chests of their latest importation of fine tea ex Oithona, pronounced to be the best crop of the season.

S. BENNETT and CO. have a few half-chests of their latest importation of fine tea ex Oithona, pronounced to be the best crop of the season.

S. BENNETT and CO. have a few half-chests of their latest importation of fine tea ex Oithona, pronounced to be the best crop of the season.

S. BENNETT and CO. have a few half-chests of their latest importation of fine tea ex Oithona, pronounced to be the best crop of the season.

S. BENNETT and CO. have a few half-chests of their latest importation of fine tea ex Oithona, pronounced to be the best crop of the season.

S. BENNETT and CO. have a few half-chests of their latest importation of fine tea ex Oithona, pronounced to be the best crop of the season.

S. BENNETT and CO. have a few half-chests of their latest importation of fine tea ex Oithona, pronounced to be the best crop of the season.

S. BENNETT and CO. have a few half-chests of their latest importation of fine tea ex Oithona, pronounced to be the best crop of the season.

S. BENNETT and CO. have a few half-chests of their latest importation of fine tea ex Oithona, pronounced to be the best crop of the season.

S. BENNETT and CO. have a few half-chests of their latest importation of fine tea ex Oithona, pronounced to be the best crop of the season.

S. BENNETT and CO. have a few half-ch

SALES BY AUCTION.

Retail Butchers.

100 Head Prime Fat Cattle.

O H. B. EBSWORTH will sell by public auction, at Flor's Victoria Yards, Petersham, on WEDNESDAY, 4th November, at half-past 2 o'clock, 100 head superior fat bullocks, &c.

The attendance of the retail trade is particularly directed to the above sale, the cattle coming to the yards direct from the stables of Bowman, Brothers, of Terry Hill Hotel, on whose account they are to be sold.

Fat Cattle. Fat Cattle.

At the Victoria Yards, T H I S D A Y, 3rd instant, at half-past 2 o'clock.

THOMAS DAWSON has received instructions from J. A. Badgery, Esq., to sell by auction, 70 head of very prime fat cattle, in lots to suit purchasers.

Amongst these cattle will be found some of the prime bullocks that have been in the market for months past.

POSTIVE SALE.

BY ORDER OF THE MORTGAGEE.

THE SPRINGWOOD HOTEL, WESTERN ROAD, About 10 miles beyond the TOWN OF PENRITH.

Half-rate Allotment, Town of Penrith.

RICHARDSON and WRENCH have received instructions from the mortgagee to sell by public auction, at the Rooms, Pitt-street, on MONDAY, 10th November, at 11 o'clock.

The hotel is a well-constructed, established road-side inn, the SPRINGWOOD HOTEL, together with 20 acres of LAND, on the Western Road, about 10 miles beyond Penrith.

The hotel is built of hard wood, lathed and plastered inside and outside, having a flagged verandah 6 feet wide, the whole length of the front. The interior length of the hotel is 67 feet x 27 feet; walls 16 feet high from floor to ceiling. It contains 10 apartments, comprising bar, tap-room, 2 parlours, and 6 bedrooms. The premises are in good order, and well finished, with varnished cedar doors and sashes.

The detached buildings consist of:

The stable, 20 x 18, built of slabs and weather-board, roofed with corrugated iron, having a flagged verandah 6 feet wide, the whole length of the building, coachhouse, &c.

Wheelwright's shop, 44 x 17.

Blacksmith's shop, 25 x 17. The land is about 20 acres, and fenced, and there are several paddocks, &c.

The Springwood Hotel is in full trade, doing a large and paying business. It is leased to Mr. ROBERT SLAFF for five years at a rental of £150 PER ANNUM.

THE TOWN OF CANCOURT, Corner allotment, 10 acres, of an acre, fronting Mansurina and Danvers streets, and through which the main road passes.

* The sale will be positive.

Terms liberal.

BOURKE-STREET, SURRY HILLS.

CAPITAL BUILDING SITE, a few feet beyond THE BOUNDARY-STONE INN, at the corner of Cleveland-street, and now included in the garden attached to these premises.

RICHARDSON and WRENCH have received instructions to sell by public auction, at the Rooms, Pitt-street, on MONDAY, 10th November, at 11 o'clock.

All that valuable allotment of land having a frontage of about 28 feet on BOURKE-STREET, SURRY HILLS, with a depth of 101 feet, extending to a street.

This is a capital site, in an elevated healthy position, and respectable neighbourhood. The instructions are peremptory to sell.

Plan at the Rooms.

VILLAGE OF CANTERBURY.

MAEST GARDEN and HOMESTEAD, comprising about 24 acres on the Cook's River, known as the property of Mr. J. Davies.

BY ORDER OF THE MORTGAGEE.

RICHARDSON and WRENCH have received instructions from the mortgagee to sell by public auction, at the Rooms, Pitt-street, on MONDAY, 9th November, at 11 o'clock.

All that valuable allotment of land having a frontage of about 28 feet on BOURKE-STREET, SURRY HILLS, with a depth of 101 feet, extending to a street.

This is a capital site, in an elevated healthy position, and respectable neighbourhood. The instructions are peremptory to sell.

Plan at the Rooms.

MESSINGDEN ROAD, NEWTOWN.

VALUABLE SITE, also THREE DWELLING-HOUSES fronting the above road, and extending to Susan-street at the rear, well known as portion of the property of Dr. A. Beddoe.

RICHARDSON and WRENCH have received instructions from the proprietor to sell by public auction, at their Rooms, Pitt-street, on MONDAY, 10th November, at 11 o'clock.

The following freshfield property, situate on the Messingden Road, not far from its junction with the Newtown Road—

LOTS 1 and 2 have each a frontage of 37 feet to the Messingden Road, and 362 feet to Susan-street, with a depth of 140 feet.

On these lots is a house, containing 5 rooms and a wide hall, also a detached kitchen and a stable of wood, and a well of spendid water, with pump, &c.

LOT 3 has frontage of 39 feet to the Messingden Road and Susan-street, with a depth of 140 feet; on it is an old house, containing 5 rooms and a wide hall, also a detached kitchen and a stable of wood, and a well of spendid water, with pump, &c.

LOT 4 has frontage of 30 feet to the Messingden Road, and 37 feet to Susan-street, with a depth of 140 feet, on it is an old house, containing 5 rooms and a wide hall, also a detached kitchen and a stable of wood, and a well of spendid water, with pump, &c.

LOT 5 to 7 have each frontage of about 26 feet to the Messingden Road, and Susan-street, with a depth of 140 feet.

The above lots are in a valuable position on a main suburban road (now being made and metalled by the municipality), in the very centre of Newtown. The instructions of the proprietor are to sell, and special attention is directed to the property as noteworthy of inspection and purchase.

Plan on view at the Rooms.

Terms at sale.

UNRESERVED SALE.

TOWN OF ARMIDALE.

Acrements 8 and 9 of section 100, containing each one acre, fronting Donley-street.

TOWN OF GOULBURN.

Corner allotment NO. 12, section 111, 66 feet frontage to Union-street, 132 feet to Wilmett-street.

RICHARDSON and WRENCH have received instructions to sell by public auction, at the Rooms, Pitt-street, on MONDAY, 10th November, at 11 o'clock.

The above valuable blocks of land, in the TOWNS of GOULBURN and ARMIDALE.

Plan on view at the Rooms.

POSTPONEMENT OF SALE.

TOWN OF GOULBURN.—ESTATE OF Mr. HENRY GRIGG.—In consequence of an arrangement between the said proprietor and the sale of the several valuable properties in the above estate, to be sold by public auction, at the town of Goulburn, on WEDNESDAY, 1st January, 1864, when the whole of the lots will be positively sold to the highest bidder.

RICHARDSON and WRENCH.

UNRESERVED PLEDGES.

LISTER and BARNETT have received instructions from Mr. Edward Bennett, pawn-broker, 118, Liverpool-street, to sell by public auction, at their Mart, King-street, THIS DAY (Tuesday), at 2 o'clock.

The unreserved pledges advertised on the 24th and 25th October last.

In the insolvent Estate of Frederick Brady.

Goodwill, License, Bar Fitteries, &c., of Prince Wales Shadwell.

M R. H. VAUGHAN has received instructions from J. P. Mackenzie, Esq., Official Receiver, in the above estate, to sell by auction, on WEDNESDAY, 4th November, at 11 o'clock, on the premises, King-street, next Pulteney-street entrance, Goodwill, license, bar fitteries, counter, stock connected with public-house, sundries.

WEDNESDAY, 4th November, at 2 o'clock.

At the New Auction Rooms, 143, Pitt-street, opposite the Union Bank.

M R. H. D. COCKBURN has been instructed to sell by auction, at his New Rooms, 143, Pitt-street, on WEDNESDAY, at 2 o'clock.

A quantity of superior household furniture, drawing-room suites for walnut, bookcases, secretary, sofa, &c., also occasional tables, bedsteads, bedding, chest of drawers, par-glasses, iron safe, &c.

Terms at sale.

To Pictures, Parties Furnishing, and others.

TUESDAY, 3rd November, at 11 o'clock.

At the Royal Standard, corner of Barrack and Clarence streets.

M R. H. D. COCKBURN has been instructed to sell by auction, on the premises of the Royal Standard, corner of Barrack and Clarence streets, THIS DAY, 3rd November, at 11 o'clock.

The whole of the superior household furniture, comprising handsome horsehair sofa, sideboards, large pier-glasses, twenty-six of Windfall's iron bedsteads, with horsehair mattresses, &c., complete tables, chairs, washstands, first-class springing and other arrangements, 8-day clock, east Indian requirements, &c.

Also, the finest table and billiard bags-tables in the colony, also porter, spirit, wine, glass, hot-water machine, &c.

TERMS CASH.

Without the slightest reserve.

Boots and Shoes.

184 Packages.

By order of the Consignors.

To Boot and Shoe Makers and the Trade.

TUESDAY, the 3rd November.

The sale will commence punctually at 11 o'clock.

MESSRS. CHAS. MOORE and CO. have received instructions from the consignors to sell by auction, at their Rooms, Pitt-street, on the above day.

104 packages of boots and shoes, consisting of Woolen & Cotton Socks.

3 cases of Royal Socks.

1 case of Horsehair.

1 case of Gunpowder ditto.

1 case of Copper ditto.

1 case of York hats.

1 case of Balsam ditto.

1 case of Candied peel.

Further particulars will be published.

TERMS AT SALE.

American Broc.

To Ironmongers.

To Shoemakers.

To Brush Dealers.

To Grocers and others.

JOHN G. COHEN will sell, at the Bank Auction Rooms, on THURSDAY, 6th November, at 11 o'clock precisely.

Involved of

Oliver's stores.

Hyson's teas.

Gunpowder ditto.

Copper ditto.

York hats.

Balsam ditto.

Candied peel.

Further particulars will be published.

TERMS AT SALE.

Fancy German Tobacco Pipes.

To Tobacconists and others.

JOHN G. COHEN will sell, at the Bank Auction Rooms, on THURSDAY, 6th November, at 11 o'clock precisely.

Involved of 4 overalls.

1 case of N. 121.

One package of fancy German tobacco pipes, comprising a great variety.

TERMS AT SALE.

On WEDNESDAY, November 4th, at 11 o'clock.

At the Old Bank of Australasia.

SHIPMENT OF MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS ex VIMERA.

Celestial Concertinas.

Musical Box Springs.

Drum Regulation Drums.

Cloches.

Violins, & cetera.

TERMS AT SALE.

UNRESERVED SALE.

By order of the Consignors.

Watches.

Panama Hat, lined.

White Brazilian Hat.

Men's Hat.

Web Felt Hat.

Fancy Wool Suits.

TERMS AT SALE.

THURSDAY, 6th.

FRIDAY, 7th.

At 11 o'clock each day.

MESSRS. CHAS. MOORE and CO. have received instructions to sell by auction, at their Rooms, Pitt-street, on the above day, without any reserve.

All that valuable allotment of land having a frontage of about 28 feet on BOURKE-STREET, SURRY HILLS, with a depth of 101 feet, extending to a street.

This is a capital site, in an elevated healthy position, and respectable neighbourhood. The instructions are peremptory to sell.

Plan at the Rooms.

TERMS AT SALE.

MESSRS. CHAS. MOORE and CO. have received instructions to sell by auction, at their Rooms, Pitt-street, on the above day, without any reserve.

